

Media Contact:

Dara Rudick, CEO, Management HQ

Cell: 651-592-3240

dara@management-hq.com

National Association of Government Communicators Selects Management HQ as its Association Management Partner

Minneapolis – July 20, 2018 – Management HQ (MHQ), an accredited, full-service association management company, announces that the National Association of Government Communicators selected MHQ to serve as its association management partner.

“The NAGC board of directors worked very hard to conduct a thorough search for an association management partner,” said Chris O’Neil, NAGC President. “We are confident that Management HQ is the right partner to help NAGC grow and thrive as we build upon our legacy of service to government communicators.”

MHQ will provide to NAGC executive leadership, strategic guidance, and run all aspects of the association’s business –finance and accounting, marketing communications, membership development and retention, Communications School / event management, and administrative support.

“Our team is honored to be working with NAGC,” said Dara Rudick, MHQ CEO. “Their members’ work of providing factual, unbiased information to the public is so important. We look forward to working with NAGC’s motivated board leaders to drive growth.”

“We chose MHQ from among many worthy candidates because MHQ has a track record of helping organizations to grow and thrive,” said O’Neil. “With our incredible board leaders, plus our new management partner, I am confident NAGC has a bright future.”

About Management HQ

Management HQ is an accredited, full-service association management company headquartered in Minneapolis. Driven by the vision of a thriving, vibrant community, MHQ provides management services and infrastructure to statewide, regional, national and international professional and trade associations. Specializing in the human services sector, MHQ primarily serves mental and primary healthcare associations; identity-based groups; and associations in the education and information services industries. MHQ is driven by our four core values of Compassion, Openness, Service and Integrity. For more, visit www.management-hq.com.

About NAGC

The National Association of Government Communicators is dedicated to advocating, promoting and recognizing excellence in government communication. NAGC provides opportunities for individual professional development and career advancement, enhancing effective communication with constituents, and advancing the profession of government communication. The principal purpose of NAGC is to advance communication as an essential professional resource at every level of local, state, tribal and national government. For more on NAGC, visit www.NAGC.com.

###